

A. Harry?---yes he was.

Q. I neglected to ask you this---did Harry Wheeler Hilleary have any children?

A. No, he never married.

Q. In early 1930 they sold the farm--do you recall that?

A. Yes, Didiwicks bought the farm.

Q. James T. Didiwick and Clara D. Didiwick, his wife?

A. Yes.

Q. Then did Didiwicks sell it to Ferrell?

A. They sold it to Ferrell---James E. Ferrell and Ruth Ferrell.

Q. What I am interested in---there is a Deed on record in the Court House dated September 12, 1931 from the following people---Charlotte W. Hilleary---I assume that is Charlotte Wheeler Hilleary---she was still living in 1931---Harry W. Hilleary, he never married, Sally W. Lewis---that would be Mrs. Lewis who lives over at the Eastern Shore---she was born a Hilleary and married a Lewis---and Robert Lewis, her husband joined in this Deed---now a figure we can not identify---Ann T. Hilleary? Do you know her?

A. Ann T. Hilleary? No.

Q. Do you know Janet H. Hilleary Botts?

A. I have heard that name. I was thinking about Ann T. Hilleary.

Q. Clarence L. Hilleary? This is another Clarence?

A. It has to be.

Q. Clarence L. Hilleary joined in this---now we don't know if he was married or not. This is the Deed to Didiwicks, there are 11 people in the Deed to Didiwicks. Four of them we can account for---seven of them we have a problem with.

Q. There is a Ridgley B. Hilleary in the Deed.

A. Never heard of him.

Q. Richard W. Hilleary? H. Worthington Hilleary?

A. These people are coming from the other side of the hill from Mr. Clarence Hilleary's---some of his cousins. That's where they are coming in from. I bet you they are in New Jersey or out West---if any of them are living.
